

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP AWARD

Awarded by
The New Brunswick Federation of Labour

The Women in Leadership Award provides official recognition to a deserving Sister, affiliated to the New Brunswick Federation of Labour (NBFL), who is currently serving the trade union movement in a leadership role, with distinction and in doing so, is making a significant and lasting contribution to the promotion of the principles and policies of her Union, her local, the NBFL, CLC or district labour councils and, to the advancement of the economic and social welfare of workers in New Brunswick.

The Sister selected for the Women in Leadership award will be recognized during the October 19 Women in Leadership Gala. She will receive a keeper plaque and her name will be engraved on the Women in Leadership shield retained in the NBFL office.
